

The Location

The East Midlands region comprises six counties including Nottinghamshire, the principal city of which is Nottingham.

BioCity Nottingham offers a prominent city centre address within easy access to the M1, London and Europe. It is well served by public transport and is within walking distance of the railway station with national rail-links.

Getting to Nottingham

By road

Two of Britain's major north/south routes, the M1 and the A1 pass right through Nottinghamshire and are easily accessible from Nottingham city centre. Follow the brown tourist information signs to the 'National Ice Centre'.
